

ADI BOUTROUS

One More Thing

Dance Piece, 2020

In his new work One More Thing, Adi Boutrous strives to convey a state of listening, solidarity and support for the other. The use of force, carrying, devotion to a body, and the shapes of a structure based on a rite of passage, express the relationship between individual and group. In their reflection, the work reveals further layers of masculinity, the potential of synchronization, and a common destiny.
